FREEDOM
FIREARMS

Joel Fulton, along with his brother Jared Fulton, co-owns and operates Freedom Firearms and Southside Sportsman Club in the city of Battle Creek. Joel is an elected delegate to the Calhoun County Republican Party. He serves on the Battle Creek Citizen Editorial Review Board for the Battle Creek Enquirer and donates on a regular basis to conservation groups such as Ducks Unlimited, Wild Turkey Federation, Whittails Unlimited, Pheasants Forever, and the Friends of the NRA. Joel is an NRA Training Counselor and has trained over 10,000 students in the last thirteen years on the safe and responsible use of firearms for personal defense. Beginning in 2003, Joel started working with the Michigan Attorney General's Office on a volunteer basis in a concerted effort to expand reciprocity for Michigan's Concealed Pistol License. Since that time we have added 31 states to our list of reciprocity and we can now carry in 40 out of the 50 United States! Joel has also been active in lobbying for pro gun legislation at both the State and National level, so please welcome, Joel Fulton!
